

About Kalymi Music

Kalymi Music (brentrobitalle.com) is the independent publishing imprint of Brent Robitaille, a Canadian music educator, author, and performer with 40+ years of teaching experience and credentials from McGill University, York University, Humber College, and the Royal Conservatory of Music. Kalymi specializes in practical, visually clear music-instruction resources for guitarists, ukulele and mandolin players, and emerging instrument enthusiasts.

With a catalogue of 60+ titles across guitar, ukulele, mandolin, cigar-box guitar, violin/fiddle, and resonator instruments, Kalymi is an authority in open tunings (Open D, Open G, DADGAD, Drop D, etc.) and quick-reference formats designed to help players learn quickly. The catalogue includes print and eBook books, posters, chord charts, digital learning paths, and video instruction across 10+ YouTube channels with 10 million+ cumulative views.

Products are distributed globally through Amazon KDP, IngramSpark, Sheet Music Plus, and Sheet Music Direct, with direct sales through brentrobitalle.com. Kalymi is currently launching Kalymi Assessments (Fall 2026): a graded, live-exam certification system for instrument achievement, beginning with Bluegrass Guitar and Cigar Box Guitar levels 1-4.

Media & Contact

Media kit: brentrobitalle.com/news

Media contact: info@brentrobitalle.com